Biography

CHRISTOPHER BOWDEN joined YOUNG & Associates in 2017 and has 25 years of experience within the insurance/insurance restoration industry. Chris specializes in high-profile complex structural property estimating for high-end residential, multi-family, commercial, hotels and resorts, manufacturing, industrial, and institutional claims throughout the United States ranging from $100,000 to $25,000,000. He regularly serves as an experienced appraiser, arbitrating pricing/scope discrepancies between insurance companies, clients, and contractors. He has managed all aspects of operations and support of field personnel for insurance reconstruction and restoration projects.

Chris' attention to detail and his previous experience as an agent, adjuster, and construction manager allow him to have a unique perspective and insight into the nuances of complex property claims. His estimating expertise and diverse background continue to be utilized for peer development, estimate review, Xactimate training, standards development, and creation of new procedures utilizing continual technological advances to maximize accuracy and superior deliverables to our clients.
