Biography

WADE BUSHMAN joined YOUNG & Associates in 2010 as a Building Consultant and quickly worked his way to Partner, then Executive Partner, overseeing our Southeast region and now Chief Executive Officer. Throughout his 28 year career, Wade has been responsible for procuring and managing complex design-build projects and insurance property losses including residential, commercial, industrial, and governmental structures and facilities. He is well versed in cost estimating, loss documentation, environmental loss management, restoration and mitigation oversight, new construction and repair bid package management, dispute resolution as umpire and referee assignments, and catastrophe assignment management and estimating. He is experienced in professional consulting services including repair and replacement estimating, negotiation of mitigation, restoration and reconstruction needs, conflict settlement services, and scope of work control and scheduling management. Wade has introduced a streamlined construction management approach to the insurance industry to ensure prompt reporting and cost estimating while maintaining accuracy. His experience on multi-million dollar industrial projects, along with his dynamic leadership skills, complements the Executive Team at YA.
